

COMMUNICATIONS.

[The New National Era does not hold itself responsible for views expressed by correspondents. Well written and interesting communications will be gladly received.]

Letter from Mississippi.

Vicksburg, July 29, 1872.
To the Editor of the New National Era:
It seems that many weeks have elapsed since giving you an item from this section of our State. The only way we can account for it is, that heretofore our residence was out on the suburbs of the city, where we used to enjoy many afternoons and evenings of quietness, and would often employ them by telling you what is going on among us. But our better half, as well as our business, admonished us to move in town, and here we are, right in the heart of it, on an elevated spot, surrounded by numerous friends, and with a beautiful view of the noble Mississippi. And often have we attempted to drop you a line, when some good neighbor would drop in for a chat and a pastime; and yet while talking they wanted to know why we do not give the news of Mississippi to the Era.

OUR DEBT.
We saw in the Golden Age, a few weeks since, where Mr. Tilton stated that the debt of Mississippi was nothing, but the Radicals—carpet-bag government, as he calls it—have increased it to more than a million dollars! He either knows not what he is saying, or, if knowing, he states an untruth. The debt of this State is over $30,000,000, contracted and shamefully repudiated by a Democratic government. Over thirty years ago the Democrats contracted a debt of $7,000,000, and after each henchman doubtless got a good share of it, a Legislature of their own stripe repudiated the whole of it, so that Mississippi bonds have no market value outside of our own limits; yet she is ready, we think, and able to pay the principal and a portion of the interest, if the bondholders are willing to accept this proposition. We think the matter will yet be submitted to the people as to whether we shall pay the whole debt, principal and interest, and thus regain the credit of the State, or to allow it to remain as it is, as a milestone of infamy and treachery of the Democratic party. And we suppose if the Republicans should undertake to pay the repudiated debt, Mr. Tilton and his cohorts would parade in large types that the Radicals have increased the debt in this State to $30,000,000.

Our State would not be owing a dime but for the incipient warfare the Democrats make on everything we do, and do their best to depreciate our bonds within and outside our own borders. For example: About a year ago this city passed an ordinance authorizing an issuance of bonds to the amount of $400,000; a committee went on to New York to sell them, and were offered 82 cents for the whole amount, but the day after their arrival the banker, who was about making arrangements to purchase the bonds, received a letter from one of the most virulent Democrats of this city—a man of very little means himself, and with little influence—stating that the city would not be able to redeem the bonds if sold, and the tax-payers did not intend to pay their taxes to a Radical government. This was the substance of his letter; and, of course, the broker asked for further time, and finally the highest we could get for the bonds was 75 cents! The money was absolutely needed for the improvement of the city, and by this interference, with no other palpable excuse than hatred to Republicanism, the city became the loser of 75 cents on four hundred thousand dollars!

GRIEVANCES.
will not make much headway in this State. R. J. Alcorn, Joseph Brunetti, and a Mr. Brady—all Southern white Republicans—have espoused Greeleyism, but they have gone over by themselves, without taking a political recruit. All of these are known as perfect haters of carpet-baggers and of civil rights for the negro. Brunetti is President of our Senate, and no member of that body did more last winter to prevent—and possibly helped to steal—our civil rights bill than he. The other two are men of no influence whatever among the Republicans. They can go, and we are rather glad to get rid of them, as they were continual disturbers in our ranks.

THE FIGHT FOR CONGRESS is going on in this District at a terrible rate, and is fast reaching fever heat. The aspirants are Hon. James Lynch, our Secretary of State; Hon. Geo. F. Brown, Judge of the Circuit Court of this District; Hon. Geo. C. McKee, our present Congressman, and Mr. M. Shaugnessy, the U. S. Marshal. It is hard as yet to tell who will win. This county, which has ten out of the thirty-eight delegates to the District Convention, instructed them to vote for McKee. Hinds, which has eight of the number, favors Shaugnessy; while the people, who know Judge Brown, and the colored people, form ninety-nine one-hundredths of the Republican voters of the District, want Lynch. But you know how these conventions are manipulated, and it is very seldom that the free untrammelled people can have their choice. I doubt very much that there will be more than one colored Congressman from this State! Money! What can it not do? But if it is resorted to much longer in depriving the people of their choice, we would not be surprised if the colored people would become lukewarm in supporting those who resort to it in working up nominations.

One thing, however, is sure, and that is, the whole people will leave the White House to Grant for four years more, and will let Wilson preside over the Senate. Vice la Grant and Wilson!
CIVIL.
Letter from Denver.
DENVER, July 31, 1872.
To the Editor of the New National Era:
The announcement of Senator Sumner's letter to the colored citizens, advising them to vote for Greeley and Brown instead of for Grant and Wilson, comes to us this morning by telegraph. I am touched by it, confused with it, and surprised at it. Wonderfully strange are the changes of man; aye, even of great, good men. Oh! how you, and I, and others regret to be compelled to differ with such a friend as the Hon. Charles Sumner. Can it be possible that in this strangely

The Revival of the Ku-Klux.

No sensible man, who has read the newspapers of the day, doubts that the Ku-Klux were a reality less than a year ago. They were an organization formed to prevent the negroes voting the Republican ticket, and to this end they burned, whipped, mutilated, and murdered numberless victims. In support of this assertion we quote Horace Greeley's speech, made in June, 1871, in which he said:

"I have been asked, are there any Ku-Klux down South? Yes, gentlemen, there are. I am moved with profound disgust when I think of these men covering themselves up with second-rate calico, making their faces, and their hands, and their feet, and riding around in the cabins of poor, harmless negroes, dragging them from their beds, and whipping and maiming them till they are compelled to swear they will never again vote the Republican ticket."

After this, no man—especially no man now supporting Greeley—will deny the existence of the Ku-Klux a year ago. But, says the Democratic press, "the Ku-Klux are entirely disbanded." Then why is Gov. Walker, down in North Carolina, apologizing for them, and "hoping to God" that they will continue their infernal work? Hear him as reported in a Greeley paper:

"A party styling itself Republican has for several years controlled the Administration, and has dragged North Carolina down from the high position she once occupied among the free commonwealths of the world, until her free commonwealth name became a by-word and a disgrace. The outrage of the Radicals had been so great that they were driven into taking the power into their own hands, and exercising the God-given right of self-protection. These outrages, combined with an inefficient Administration, have raised to Ku-Kluxism. He was not here to defend the Ku-Klux or violence of any kind; but he did not hesitate to say, as the Chief Magistrate of the grandest old State in the Union, that when the men whom they have placed in power fail so utterly to do their duty, he hoped to God the people would take the Government into their own hands."

This is a palpable confession and a defiant approval of the existence of the Ku-Klux. But no one needed Walker's impudent admissions to believe in that. Within a fortnight two distinct cases of Ku-Kluxism have been announced in North Carolina. Doubtless more have occurred. Both the parties have evidently suffered from the one. The Democrats because they are afraid Northern Liberals will be disgusted, and Republicans because they fear that the alarm of the negroes at the renewal of persecution will keep voters from the polls. Greeley's inaugural speech, in which he said the Tribune's own correspondents were compelled to listen to, and is impudent enough to report:

"The Democrats of the South, if Horace Greeley is elected, will be the worst disappointed set of men you ever saw. I don't think they will ever vote for him. They think he has, and there is sure to be a fight unless these secessionists down here are allowed to manage him. You don't and can't know them as we do; but mind what I tell you, this whole country will be overrun with Ku-Klux within three months after Mr. Greeley's inauguration. He is sure to be taken to suppress disorder. There'll be such a howl as this country never heard of."

Some of the Democratic papers take another tack. They would have us believe that the negroes are all at fault, though it is curious how this offensive people always get the worst of it. A dispatch to the Associated Press, which is usually sure to be a true one, describes an occurrence in Savannah:

SAVANNAH, July 29.—The attempt of the negroes to ride on street-cars culminated in a quarrel to-night, during which two whites and several negroes were wounded. There is much excitement.

This, obviously colored as it is, is not so savage enough for the Tribune, which publishes a special account as follows:

SAVANNAH, July 29.—The political bitterness which has been rapidly intensifying during the past few weeks, culminated in a riot, this afternoon, in the streets, between blacks and whites, incited by Custom-house employees.

Two months ago, before the Tribune's guns had been set on fire by treachery of its chief, it would have denounced such a rage of this kind as it deserved. It would have asked if an attempt to ride in street-cars was a capital offense in Savannah, and it would have promptly stamped as a lie the statement about Custom-house employees. Now it employs the tone and tactics of the low-pro-slavery, Ku-Klux Democratic papers. Does it suppose that all its readers are as lost to a sense of decency, or are as incapable of honest indignation against cruelty and oppression as itself?

Still another portion of the Democratic press would have it, we suppose, that the Administration speakers have been stirring up strife. The Herald raves about "the seed sown by Secretary Boutwell and those who have united with him in the attempt to excite the passions of the white people against the North Carolina against the whites, and those with the following brutal threat and more brutal falsehood:

"It must be peace or war between the black and white citizens of the Southern States, and Boutwell and his friends are doing their best to make it war."

There is not, in anything Mr. Boutwell or any other Republican speaker has said, the shadow of foundation for the contention of the Herald's. Senator Doolittle, in his denunciation of the campaign, warned negroes that if they did not divide their votes between him and Walker, and he has been saying, sustained the Ku-Klux outrages. But no Republican has followed these evil examples.

The simple truth slipped from the pen of a Tribune writer when he declared, yesterday: "There is no part of the Union where intimidation is so easy as it is in North Carolina, or where a little money will buy so many votes."

This is the secret of all these twistings and turnings on the question of the treatment of the negroes. Whether the Tribune boldly declared to have been called into being by the measures adopted to suppress them, or whether the negroes are charged with violently getting themselves killed and maimed, or whether the negroes are charged with getting up riots to kill their own rioters—the object of the lying and squandering is always the same. It is to promote the interests of the Ku-Klux Democracy, and bring the reign of peace and reconciliation by allowing the midnight assassins and disguised marauders to have it all their own way. Horace Greeley to defend, excuse, or pardon them.

Very sincerely yours, H. E. C.

inspired with the purest faith, with convincing eloquence, fighting against the reactionary parties with a tenacious and skillful propaganda, excited extraordinary interest, learned, popular, and literary, that were at once the force of light and the nucleus of organization. The chairs in the universities, gained by rigorous academic competition by disciples of the new ideas, contributed powerfully to the diffusion of the light. Thanks to them, history assumed a progressive and humanitarian tendency. They redeemed the traditions of the country from their monarchical character, and reinvested them in the light of new science with the Democratic character. Philosophy proclaimed human reason as the supreme criterion for investigating and testing the truth. The tribune, although open only to one person, seconded the movement of the press and the university. A party arose, strongly organized, revealing itself in all the manifestations of public life, acquiring inside and outside of law, extraordinary energy. The dynasty of the Bourbons understood that this infusion of ideas was transforming the public conscience, and thus leading inevitably to revolutionary explosions. They prosecuted the press, and the press sustained its banner with great heroism under the weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the privations of continual imprisonment. They prosecuted the tribune, and the electors agreed upon retirement from their legal privileges, and notified to the authorities their intention to appeal to the colored race, and the university continued its propagation of ideas and the education of youth for liberty. From this action and reaction, the attack of the tenacious propaganda and continued persecution, a new era of human progress was born. The weight of enormous fines and the priv